- We should stand up and directly fight Russian aggression against a Democratic Ukraine, because Russia will not stop with Ukraine
- Along with our NATO allies, we should do more to support Ukraine like enforce a No Fly Zone and supply additional advanced weapons
- Continue the same policy of providing defensive weapons and humanitarian support, and avoiding additional escalation between the US and Russia
- The US should provide only humanitarian aid, and not take sides in the military conflict.
- We should reduce or stop providing weapons and support for Ukraine because it is not our fight, and we should stay out of it completely.

Which statement best reflects your attitude toward the events in Washington DC on January 6th, 2021?

Trump Incited Mob

Legitimate Protest

Inappropriate of Trump

Answer Options:
- Trump and his supporters deliberately lied about a rigged election and purposely incited a mob to launch a violent insurrection.
- It was a legitimate political protest that got out of hand, and should not be used to demonize President Trump, Republicans or all supporters of President Trump.
- It was inappropriate for Donald Trump and his supporters to try to overturn the election and the resulting violence is at least partially Trump's fault.
- I believe the political and media opponents of President Trump had some role in sparking the violence that day because they knew it would give the left a political advantage going forward and the ability to impeach Trump.

Answer Options:
- It was a fair and legitimate election and the results reflect the will of the people.
- I don't believe that there was rampant voter fraud or a conspiracy to change votes, but I do think that the election was not fair due to Big Tech and the Media unfairly suppressing stories like Hunter Biden's laptop, and last minute changes in the election rules in many states.
- I believe that there was a broad effort to steal the election which included voter fraud, vote count tampering, hacking of election machines and other systematic criminal acts.
